Maria Tsamboula's social and humanitarian activities are rich, since she is the President of a non-governmental organisation (registered at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs) that plans and effects various actions for third world –under developed countries.

She has conducted in 2008 a Charity Art Auction, after the kind request and support of the organisation ‘Doctors with no frontiers’.

As President of Panathinaike Hellenic Women's Organisation in Drossia since 2006, she works on various aspects of women's lives, like equality and equal opportunities, help and care for oppressed and abused women.

Her future plans are rehabilitation programs for disabled people, immigrants' problems, young people's problems etc.

She is a great supporter of various volunteering actions in a local scale.
